

Adrienne Wallace

Vice President of Wellness and Community Engagement

awallace@cebde.org

Adrienne was born and raised in Wilmington, Delaware and has cultivated her passion for wellness and community engagement. She graduated from University of Delaware with her Bachelor of Arts in Biological Sciences and Women’s Studies and completed a Master of Public Health from the University of Pennsylvania. Prior to coming to the CEB, Adrienne was a Senior Statistical Research and Policy Analyst at Nemours. She brings a strong health and wellness knowledge to the CEB having worked with the Treasure Coast Health Council, St. Christopher’s Hospital for Children, Health Partners Plans, Inc, and Nemours.