

David Blowman

Vice President of Finance and Administration

dbloman@cebde.org

After graduating from Penn State University with a master's in Policy Analysis, David went to work in Delaware's Department of Finance. In addition to serving 4 years at OMB and 10 years as Brandywine School District's Chief Financial Officer, David also spent 8 years working for the Department of Education, including serving as the Deputy Secretary of Education. As the Deputy Secretary of Education, David was responsible for overseeing finance, human resources, technology and charter schools, school facilities, transportation, and school nutrition.