Community Education Building Hires Chief Fundraiser

Former Higher Ed and Healthcare Development Professional to Head Fundraising at CEB

WILMINGTON, DE., February 6, 2017 – The Community Education Building has named Mark L. Duncan as its new Vice President of Development.

Mark is a seasoned fundraising professional with close to 20 years of fundraising management experience and brings an enthusiastic passion for education to the CEB. Throughout his career, Mark has managed multi-million-dollar capital and special campaigns with a particular strength in cultivating and securing large contributions from major donors. During his tenure at Millersville University, Mark oversaw its $60 million capital campaign and two focused campaigns totaling over $16 million for the University's School of Education and Athletics.

"I am thrilled to join the CEB team and look forward to advancing its mission of providing a quality educational experience through philanthropy," said Duncan. "I am excited about this challenge."

"We are pleased to have Mark on board," said CEO, Linda Jennings. "He brings a wealth of knowledge as a professional fundraiser and a passion for education. We believe Mark will be a strong addition to the CEB staff"

Mark brings over 25 years of experience in the nonprofit sector from a wide range of organizations that include camp and conference ministry, higher education, public media and healthcare. Mark has also served on multiple nonprofit boards including the United Way of Lancaster County, York County Economic Alliance (YCEA), Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE) District II, and Johnsonburg Presbyterian Center.

Mark holds a bachelor's degree from Rowan University in Glassboro, NJ and resides in Lancaster, PA with his family.
