Joanne Gaitwood relocated to Wilmington, Delaware in 2009 from the Atlanta Georgia area. While residing in Georgia she was the Director of a Transitional Home for women as well as an Advocate for Women and Girls in court. Ms. Gaitwood was the Executive Director of the Scottsdale Community Planning Council in Georgia where she was responsible for community involvement projects and special events. She brings to the CEB those same experiences and responsibilities for community involvement projects, special events, and family services.

Ms. Gaitwood is a team member in the CEB Family Resource Center and School Food Pantry, providing services to the families of students associated with the schools housed at the CEB. She has matriculated through such colleges as Wilberforce University, Community College of Philadelphia, and Clayton State College as she pursued her studies in communication studies and leadership courses.

Ms. Gaitwood resides in Wilmington with her mother and volunteers in the community. She is president of the 4th District NPC and is Chair/Member of Eastside Blueprint/Eastside Rising.
