

Robert Whitehead

CEB Executive Chef

rwhitehead@cebde.org

Robert “Chef Bob” Whitehead brings to the Community Education Building over 29 years of experience in the Hospitality Industry and over 20 years spent in Food and Beverage Management, encompassing planning, directing, and coordinating activities of an organization. Mr. Whitehead has the ability to develop HACCP plans, Sanitation plans, healthy monthly menus and does catering for considerable groups. He has excellent interpersonal communication skills with an ability to interface across all levels of any organization, to include networking with other organizations interested in food services. He believes that empowering students with healthy meals during the school day will lead to the successful path of the students becoming life-long learners.

Mr. Whitehead received his Associate’s Degree in Culinary Arts from Baltimore International College and has Serve-safe and Alcohol Awareness Certificates. He has also received several excellent Reviews from newspapers and magazines such as, “The Jewish Times”, “The City Paper” and “The Baltimore Sun”. Among his many honors and activities in food service, he was winner of a Gingerbread House competition in 2010.

Mr. Whitehead lives in Joppa, Maryland and continues to work with students, parents, and faculty on special projects and volunteer work.